FINANCIAL STATEMENT

(CONFIDENTIAL)

Corporations bidding (and their guarantor, if applicable) must provide financial statements, which shall include a balance sheet and income statement with appended notes, in the form attached hereto, prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. Such statements shall be provided for the three previous complete years. Information on the current year-to-date may also be provided. In the case of subsidiaries where separate financial statements of the subsidiary are not generated, the above referenced financial statements of the parent corporation shall be submitted in its place.

Individuals or other organizations bidding must complete the attached personal financial statement and submit copies of its three most recently filed income tax returns.

The Department reserves the right to require additional financial information.
