INDUSTRIAL MINERALS RE-CERTIFICATION APPLICATION FOR FOREPERSON

HISTORY: Effective 9/17/10 -- Promulgated Under: 119.03 -- Statutory Authority: 1514.40, 1514.46
Rule Amplifies: 1514.42, 1514.46 -- 1501:14-2-07 Certified mine foreperson

(E) Qualifications, fees and procedures governing the renewal of mine foreperson certification. A certificate issued under paragraph (B) of this rule may be renewed, provided that the applicant verifies that all required training pursuant to 30 C.F.R. part 46, as amended, has been completed, and any other requirements for renewal have been satisfied.

(1) A Mine Foreperson certificate issued pursuant to section 1514.47 of the Revised Code and this rule shall expire five (5) years after issuance of the certificate.

(2) A Mine Foreperson certificate issued pursuant to section 1514.47 of the Revised Code and this rule may be renewed six (6) months prior to expiration of such certification, and upon completion of the following:

(a) An applicant for recertification shall file an affidavit with the chief establishing the applicant's qualifications for recertification. Such affidavit shall be made on a form prescribed by the chief and notarized prior to submission.

(b) An applicant for recertification shall provide the chief with copies of training records verifying that the applicant has received annual refresher training, as required in rules adopted and incorporated by reference pursuant to division (A) of section 1514.40 of the Revised Code, for each calendar year during the five (5) preceding years. (MSHA 5000-23 is the accepted document for this provision)

(c) An applicant for recertification shall pay a non-refundable fee of twenty-five dollars ($25), to be submitted with each application for renewal. This fee shall be paid by check or money order (only) payable to "Treasurer, State of Ohio." Any moneys collected under this paragraph shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the Surface Mining Fund created in section 1514.06 of the Revised Code.

(d) The chief may issue a certificate of renewal to an applicant completing all requirements of division (C) of section 1514.47 of the Revised Code and this rule.

(3) A Foreperson or Mine Foreperson certificate issued prior to April 6, 2007, shall expire on April 6, 2012. A person holding such a certificate shall be eligible for renewal provided he or she meets the requirements of section 1514.47 of the Revised Code and this rule.

(4) A person certified prior to April 6th 2007, and choosing to not renew his or her certification prior to April 6th 2012, shall cease to perform any and all duties of a certified foreperson at midnight, April 6th 2012 (per Revised Code and this rule).

(4) A person certified after April 6th 2007, and choosing to not renew his or her certification prior to its five-year expiration date, shall cease to perform any and all duties of a certified foreperson at midnight, on the date of expiration.

(5) A person for whom certification has expired must apply for, and pass, the examination conducted under paragraph (B) of this rule for the desired certification prior to again being authorized to perform those duties requiring state foreperson certification.
